

Practice your French & Volunteer

What?

A group of 6 young French volunteers is coming to Glasgow to experience new exciting volunteering opportunities with our local community partners. The project is the result of a long-term partnership between Xchange Scotland and Solidarites Jeunesses and aims to enhance volunteer's new skills, intercultural understanding and their role as active citizens.

Who?

Xchange Scotland is looking for students and speakers of French language who are keen to practice their French and support the group during volunteering activities and their intercultural experience. Happy to organize English-French lessons, translate or just join volunteering activities?

Sign up and make this great project even more amazing!
