- How many words from the word bank did you already know?
- Put a tick beside the ones that you know.

You might have recognised some of the following:

- that verbs change a little depending on who is doing the action, but most of the word usually stays the same. For example, think of some classroom commands like: regardez, restez....
- Question words : pourquoi ?

Now choose five words which you didn't know and learn them – your partner can test you once you've learned them! Remember that French doesn't always sound like it is written.
