

What's the time Mr Wolf?

French children play a fun game with questions. It is similar to "What's the time Mr Wolf?". The children ask the wolf (a person standing by a wall) "Y-es-tu?" are you there? Que fais-tu?" what are you doing? And the wolf says what clothes he/ she's putting on...he / she might put on plenty clothes or he/ she might decide to just put on shorts...then come running after the others trying to catch someone to replace him / her as the wolf.

French children sing a song, or chant these words while they play the game

Promenons-nous dans les bois

Tant que le loup n'y est pas.

Loup, loup, y es-tu?

Loup, loup, que fais-tu?

For more ideas about how to exploit this game as a whole class drama activity, visit CLIC for Teachers website for a whole class drama performance with music, Loup, Loup y es –tu?

The Momes.net website has the music that accompanies this game.

